THE CORSOLATIONS OF EMANCIPATION.

Frank.

(From the Mobile Advertiser.)

We are informed by telegraph that the Emperor regal has decreed the emanipation of slavos in the nontry in twenty years. Such is the way of a ord, and we suppose it will be all right, on the pepie that "all is well that ends well." The Emper is perhaps acted wisely in taking time by the foreign adual emancipation of the blacks is better than revulence and slavery for white men.

A Combination of Mysterious Circumstances [From the Trenton (N. J.) Gazette, May 10.]

A combination of mysterious, and as yet unsolve events have, for the past six weeks, excited the ourious and indignation of the good people of Keyport. It appears that one night about six weeks ago entrance we can to drawers bourseaus, &c., turned out, and a general wammage of the premises indulged in. Although in the transacking of the drawers some money was discovered was left untouched; neither was any other articles which we will be a very affectionsts I elter to the lad of the house. Nothing further transpired is give any clue to the mystery until about two weeks since, was the lady above mentioned received a letter by the hands of a boy inviting her, in most endouring terms, to meet "G. M." at a certain street corner specific that evening. The jady, whose name, for obvious manners of withhold, tried to induce the boy by bribe manners. his motive in thus persecut every man has in pursu a answered. He then gave
